

EZCORP Announces Addition to Board of Directors

May 13, 2019

AUSTIN, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- EZCORP, Inc. (NASDAQ:EZPW) today announced that Zena Srivatsa Arnold has joined its Board of Directors effective May 10, 2019.

Ms. Arnold currently serves as Google's Global Head of Growth for Chromebooks. She has over 15 years of marketing, brand management, strategy development and business operations experience with Google, Kellogg Company, Procter & Gamble and General Electric Corporation. She joins eight other independent directors, bringing the total number of directors to eleven, nine of whom are "independent" under applicable Nasdaq Stock Market rules.

"We are delighted to welcome Zena to the Board," said Stuart Grimshaw, Chief Executive Officer. "Her impressive marketing and digital background rounds out the portfolio of skills and experience that our independent directors bring to the boardroom. We look forward to fresh and continued contributions from this group of exceptionally talented executives as we grow our current business and drive our strategic initiatives."

More detailed biographical information about Ms. Arnold can be found in the Current Report on Form 8-K that the company has filed in connection with this announcement.
